

In-building service coverage improvement

Enhancing the existing service coverage for in-building LTE shadow areas

The Solution

- Operator installed Qucell's small cells in the lower ground level and basement loading area of a shopping mall for coverage enhancement (areas with weak signals)
- Offloading traffic onto the indoor small cell in a public area also can be considerable savings